

You are invited to the Twelfth Annual HorseTail Scramble

Trail Run and Fitness Walk

1 PM, July 4, 2009

Churning Rapids

53044 Hwy M 203, Hancock, MI

(4.5 mi past the Hancock Beach on M 203 towards McLain State Park)

Challenge the 10k Trail Run or enjoy a leisurely 5k Fitness Walk. Join the fun – glide along forested trails past woodland streams, view Lake Superior from the pasture against the sky, and take a jump in the pond to cool off at the end.

The Scramble will be held in conjunction with the 17th Annual Fourth of July CELEBRATION at Churning Rapids. Scramblers are invited to join the music, feast and festivities following the Scramble. If you stay for the celebration, please bring a drink to share (doesn't need to be fancy – we will have other stuff too).

WARNING: The Scramble is run in the afternoon of a summer day over woodland trails. All risk is accepted by the scramblers themselves.

HorseTail Scramble Registration

There is no entry fee. Any donation is welcome! Donations will go to the Keweenaw Land Trust's Land Stewardship Fund. We have received pledges matching the first $1500 so we really want to take advantage of the whole match. For those donating at least $15 there will be HTS bandana and a compact fluorescent bulb.
